Benton's Smoky Mountain Country Hams & Bacon

Wow what an experience! I went with my mom and my daughter and we all had fun. We learned about smoked, cured hams and bacons, they were nice enough to show us the back where they cure the ham and the gentlemen even gave my hungry little girl a slice of bologna and cheese to snack on. We bought a lot of bacon and ham and will for sure be back. Blessed to have this gem in Tennessee!

Donna's Old Town Café

Good ole fashioned home cooking, with amazing hamburgers. If you're in Madisonville, you've got to make this stop at Donna's. The staff is just plain friendly. Epitome of Southern Hospitality at this establishment.

Fort Loudoun State Historic Park

This dog friendly historical fort is the very best I've ever visited in my life, and my father, a history teacher, dragged me to a lot of forts in my lifetime. The geography is stunning, the fort itself is beautifully rebuilt according to historical details. You can walk into each building, and get a feel for the quarters and facilities. The interior of the buildings is immaculate and sturdy. All structures are well maintained, the grounds are clean, and the views are gorgeous.

Indian Boundary Lake

I moved to Tellico about a year ago. Locals told me about the lake so we went up there. I absolutely fell in love. It's so beautiful up there. I would definitely tell you to go. The water feels really good, your surrounded by a beautiful mountain view. It's so relaxing. They have a camping area, fishing area, walking/bike trails, bathrooms. It's really nice. My family will be continuing to go there often.

Lost Sea Adventure

What a cool experience! Very cool cave with really neat features I haven't seen anywhere else but the crowning achievement is the lake. It is beautiful and well lit. The walking is a bit steep so this may be one to sit out if you might have trouble with something like that but it wasn't hard for me or any of my children.

Peach Street Grill

Great ambiance, clean space that was welcoming and fun. Easy seating, good music, stellar wait staff. The menu has unique twists as well as the traditional favorites. The portions are just right (we actually took some home) and the presentation on everything shows that they care about your experience. Best of all was the price! We are looking forward to coming back the next time we are in town!

Sequoyah Birthplace Museum

I took my four children there and we had a great time. Educational and we learned many interesting things. You walk through at your own pace. They have the burial mound out back of the museum and we stopped by the gift shop on the way out. Price was affordable for our tickets and reasonable on gift items.

Sweetwater Creamery

Loved, loved, loved this place! We tried the blueberry cheesecake flavor and the chocolate mousse flavor, and we both enjoyed our picks. There is some outdoor seating and plenty of indoor seating. The lady helping us was so friendly and happy to let us try a few of the flavors. They had a big selection to choose from, so I'll definitely come back to try more.

Tsali Notch Vineyard

What a beautiful spot for a drink! The staff was very friendly and provided their recommendations for tastings, suggestions on creating your own cocktails with their various wines, and where to visit around the vineyard. The French Broad was exceptional!

Ya Rona Craft Pizza and Cocktails

First off the staff is amazing. The atmosphere is blasting with popping colors the tables are beautiful and most important the food was exquisite! The wings don't even get me started this spot put a lot big chains to shame. Help this business come on in and enjoy the experience.
